

Herongate Barn Theatre

On June 4, 2016 about 40 TEGSA members went to Herongate Barn Theatre to see - "Nurse Jane Goes to Hawaii" for the 2:00 p.m. show .

After enjoying a scenic drive to Herongate Barn Theatre which is in Whitevale, Ontario, we all sat down to a scrumptious buffet lunch which started at 12:00 noon with a delicious green pea soup topped with sour cream and a variety of salads. Then we were served roast pork, chicken, tilapia with delicious mango salad, rice with beans, vegetables, roast beef with Yorkshire pudding, etc. etc. as I lost count. Also, a variety of individually plated generous portions of desserts, tea and coffee.

During and after Lunch we were entertained by their musicians' one of them being a comedian and kept us in splits of laughter.

Then it was time to go upstairs to see "Nurse Jane Goes to Hawaii", a comedy written by an award winning Canadian Writer - Alan Stratton.

A comedy with twists and turns about two mixed up families, it reminded me of the song "Shame & Scandal in the Family".

Some of us were laughing so much and felt that we might fall out of our seats.

During intermission, we were treated to cookies and water which was a pleasant surprise.

I'm sure all attendees will agree with me that we had a good time and came home glad that we don't have complicated lives.

Thank you Violet Monteiro, TEGSA's Trip Co-ordinator, for organizing this second outdoor event of the new committee. Congratulations on your excellent organizational skills.

We wish to thank each and every Committee member for coming on board for the next two years and "Saving TEGSA", so that the rest of us can have fun and enjoy all the functions for which you each work tirelessly.

Had you not come on board, TEGSA would no longer exist. Congratulations & Thank You Again!!
