

Holy Mass For The Deceased, November 01, 2019

On Friday, November 01, 2019, Fr. Daryl Miranda celebrated Holy Mass for all the dearly departed family and friends of TEGSA members.

The altar was beautifully decorated by Mena and Patrick Conception and the gorgeous flowers that adorned the altar were hand-picked from the garden of Paul and Rose Madeira.

Juliet Matkar did the first reading, the Psalm was read by Fatima Lawson and the second reading was read by Clotilda Fernandes. All the hymns were sung beautifully by all members and was led by the sweet, melodious voice of Sheila D'Souza.

After Mass ended, Fr. Daryl said the Grace Before Meals, which was followed by a scrumptious snack plate.

Members seemed to enjoy socializing with one another, while relaxing with a hot cup of tea and cookies. Shortly after that, members said their goodbyes to one another, with warm hugs and smiles.

A special thank you to Loretta D'Sylva for organizing another very enjoyable, reverent and lovely evening for TEGSA members.
