

Review of SINNERS, a Comedy drama at Herongate Barn Dinner Theatre

on May 28, 2017

68 members from TEGSA, SINNERS AND RIGHTEOUS (Don't know who is who!?) went to enjoy the sumptuous meal and hilarious comedy "SINNERS" organized by Violet Monteiro, TEGSA's Trips Co-ordinator. The atmosphere was warm and cozy and once we were settled down, we enjoyed the salads, starters, main course and dessert. The food was well prepared and pleasant to the palate! While we ate we were entertained by a pianist who played old time favourites and that was followed by lighter moments with few jokes by a Comedian who was delighted to entertain the TEGSA group once again.

At 2 p.m. we were ushered into the Barn Theatre, where the stench of cattle was absent! True to its marketing campaign "Laughter is piled upon Laughter in this classic Foster Comedy!" we constantly laughed. As the Sinners (actors/actresses) were coming on the stage and inadvertently revealing their sins, yet portraying their innocence or righteousness mixed with mistaken identities and extra-marital affairs.....made this comedy, one of the best one that I have seen!! Unfortunately, there was no chance for confession as the pastor died in the beginning!!! Until we meet again to cast a stone on the SINNERS....only if you are not a SINNER!!!!

By Mukesh Kapadia