

VALENTINE NITE

Love will be in the air this weekend in Toronto and the GTA, ahead of Valentine's Day on Tuesday. And let's be clear – love is not just the romantic type, no matter what Cupid may have us believe. TEGSA celebrated Valentine Nite on Friday, February 10, 2017. Even though it was snowing heavily and the traffic was bad, everyone came with their red outfit with the exception of a few who had to come directly from work as they were already late.

The MC for the evening was Sheilah D'Souza. She opened the event by introducing the DJ, Joe Menezes. Since the caterer was running late due to bad weather, everyone started dancing to the excellent music. Joe had a good selection of slow, fast and of course the Line Dancing music. When the caterer finally arrived and the tables were set with the food, Lynn Francis was called to say the prayers. Everyone enjoyed the delicious hot dinner of Pulao, Chicken Coconut Curry, Beef Chilly Fry, vegetables (Tendlis) and the Diplomat Pudding. This was catered by Konkan Delite.

After dinner, Sheilah announced that one couple from each table stand and they picked the numbers of 10 lucky tables to come to the floor. Hat containing chits were passed to each couple. One lucky couple – Romualdo and Violet Fernandes got a chit with "Mr. & Mrs Valentine" and were presented with a prize.

Some more dancing and then we had the Bingo. The first caller for the evening was Derrick Coelho, followed by Mavis Pecus for the second game.

Everyone had a nice evening. Thanks to all the TEGSA Committee members for putting this event together for all the members. Excellent job.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY TO ALL.
